3. LETTER FROM MARY DALE

The Board discussed a notice from Mary Dale of the Department of Health, which indicated that the Department would be doing an expedited rule change to one of the WAC 246-12 rules. Mr. Copsey clarified that this was a non-substantive rule, therefore could be completed using the expedited process. None of the physical therapy rules currently pending fall into that category, so the expedited process cannot be used.

4. BOARD MEMBER TERMS

Mr. Copsey provided clarification for the Board on term length for Board members. This will be further discussed at the September meeting.

5. REVIEW OF APPLICATIONS

- Applicant A – Application denied pending completion of nine (9) credits in humanities; two (2) in social and behavioral sciences; and wound care coursework.
- Applicant B – This application will be presented at the next meeting.
- Applicant C – Application denied due to insufficient grades in professional studies.

5. DISCIPLINARY CASE REVIEWS

- Case No. 2001-12-0001PT – CLOSED (after investigation) – No violation.
- Case No. 2002-03-0001PT – CLOSED (after investigation) – Below threshold, no whistleblower form received.
